Ageing and Blending ROSE QUESNEL

Native Canadian Tobacco

We have seen in our previous advertisements that, from the selection and first planting of the seed to the ultimate packing of the cured plant, it is a constant solicitude to the planter.

The tobacco, packed in bundles arrives at our warehouses where the stock is inspected, and, if the leaf appears to be well cured and of good quality it is "passed". Then the "hands" are packed upon each other in regular rows in large casks where they are compressed in a very solid mass and the casks stored in our cellars where the tobacco ages for two years. It is the slow, sure way of perfectly maturing tobacco in wooden casks which gives it that mellowed smoothness you taste in every pipeful of Rose Quesnel.

When perfectly aged the Quesnel Tobacco and Rose Tobacco, the two most fragrant and aromatic varieties of tobacco grown in Canada are blended by experts, in scientific proportions, the result of years of research and experiment, and it is then ready to be cut and packed for the trade.

ROSE QUESNEL Smoking Tobacco

is an ideal blend of native pipe tobacco. You cannot get greater tobacco satisfaction than ROSE QUESNEL will give you; it is free from sting or bite, does not dry or parch the mouth and it is cool, sweet, mild and fragrant.

Try a package 5¢ At all dealers.

ROSE QUESNEL Tobacco is the product of the choicest natural native leaf, properly grown, dried and cured and guaranteed free from artificial flavoring and "filling".

It is all tobacco and nothing but tobacco.

MCGILL LOSES IN TWO GAMES AT PITTSBURG

First Game by 3-2 and the Second by 4-1.

BOTH GAMES WERE FAST.

Behan, Fraser, Rooney and Scott Played Brilliant Hockey for Red and White.

(Special to McGill Daily.) PITTSBURG, Jan. 5.—Last evening, before one of the largest crowds ever in the Duquesne Gardens, the P. A. A. succeeded in downing McGill to the tune of 3-2. The game was furiously contested from start to finish.

The ice was soft, and the McGill team bore evidence of their long, tiresome journey. However, the red and white immediately got down to business, their team work being of a very high class, and their excellent physical condition plainly showing. Behan, Fraser, Pat Rooney and Scott were the pick of the McGill team, and Behan especially starred, seeming to be able to elude his opponents at will.

The play started with a rush, Pittsburgh setting the pace. Scott did some excellent work, turning aside shot after shot. After thirteen minutes' play P. A. A. succeeded in getting the first goal. After this McGill made several tries, but failed to tally, and Pittsburgh scored again just before the half gong sounded. Score 2-0.

Second period opened with McGill forcing the play, but a chance shot by Madden netted another for the P. A. A. Score 3-0. For the rest of the game the play was all McGill's. The combination of Rooney and Behan at this period was very effective. Rooney got the puck near the centre and after passing the whole Pittsburgh team, scored McGill's first goal.

McGill was now playing the P. A. A. off their feet, and the crowd was wild. Gorman and Nagle rushed, Cully intercepted, and rushed with McGill and Kelly. Kelly passed to Cully, who in turn passed to McCulloch, who, eluding several opponents, shot McGill's second and last goal, with one minute to go.

The game was the best seen in the Duquesne Gardens this season, and had the final gong been delayed the story might have been decisively different.

SECOND GAME.

(Special to McGill Daily.) PITTSBURG, Jan. 6.—Although the score of 4-1 in the second game would seem to indicate that McGill were outclassed, such was not the case, the Red and White making the P. A. A. travel every minute they were on the ice.

Behan was again the star, but Rooney and Fraser also played able hockey, the only thing saving the game for Pittsburgh being the exceptional defensive work of Gorman, Mackay and Miller. Eddie Nagle, a Canadian and a former Ottawa College boy, was the star of the home team, and time and again skated down the ice in spectacular rushes. Behan tallied McGill's only goal in the first half of the play, while the McCormick brothers each secured one. Nagle was instrumental in securing both goals in the second period, scoring one himself and later passing the puck to Cameron in time to net another.

The line-up and summary follows:

First Game.

QUEEN'S DEFEATED.

(Special to McGill Daily.) TORONTO, Jan. 7.—Queen's University team was defeated here on Saturday afternoon by the Riversides by a score of 2 to 1. Riversides tallied the first goal in the opening period, and the score remained 1 to 0 till the second, when they added another. Queen's secured their only paratively free from any rough play, goal in the last period.

The game was very fast and com-Riversides—Addison, goal; Merrick and Smith, defense; Parks, rover; Farrar, centre; McCaffrey, right wing; Dopp, left wing.

FIGHT FOR FIRST PLACE TO-NIGHT

McGill Meets Laval in Final Contest for Leadership in City League.

In the final contest at the City League games to-night the leadership of the League is at stake. Both McGill and Laval have won their games to date, and while Laval has probably the better scoring machine, this fact is offset by the superiority of the McGill goalers. McGill have a wonderfully improved team this season, the addition of Behan and Kelly having greatly strengthened their forward line. This game promises to be just about the best that has ever been staged in the City League. In the opening event the Soldiers are figuring on breaking into the win column at the expense of Loyola, and to this end have arranged an extra practice week at the Arena. Loyola will take some beating, as they put up the closest kind of an argument in their last game against McGill, and have since played a game in New York against the Irish Americans. In the second event Shamrocks meet Nationals. The Irishmen are full of confidence after their win over the Soldiers, but Nationals have been strengthened, and have been working consistently over the holidays, and must not be overlooked as a good bet.

QUEEN'S OBJECTS.

Both Toronto and McGill recently made a proposal that the medical course should be extended one year, and that after two years of University work, and at the end of the pre-medical year the degree of B.Sc. should be granted. When this was submitted to Queen's it was taken under consideration, and last Friday the Senate of that University passed a resolution opposing the move in every way. The main objections to this change as represented by Queen's are—(1) that giving the B.Sc. so early is a backward movement, and altogether opposed to recognized usage; that it would increase the cost of the course so that many would be deprived of taking it; that the present war has caused a demand for doctors, which should be supplied as quickly as possible; that the prolonging of the course will drive graduates into practice as soon as they graduate without giving them a year's work as hospital interns, and that no action should in any case be taken until the report of the Royal Commission in Ontario is published.

OVER ONE HALF ARTS STUDENTS NOW IN KHAKI

Fifty-three Per Cent. of the Class of Arts '17 Enlisted.

THIRTY-FOUR ARE OFFICERS.

Six of Its Members Have Made The Supreme Sacrifice—One Military Cross.

Few other classes of the University have so fine an active service record as the present Arts seniors, a class which entered the University with a registration of 105 undergraduates, and now has only 25 undergraduates on its roll. Not all of those who have left the class have donned khaki, but a list compiled by the class executive, and published below shows that 56 members—about 53 per cent.—of the class are now serving with the colours. The class has given six of its members who have made the supreme sacrifice, one member has won the Military Cross, and another the Military Medal. In addition nine former members of the Arts seniors have been wounded, and two have been invalided home on sick leave, while three others have been posted as missing for some months. Of the 56 on active service 34 hold commissioned rank, and of these nine have been promoted on the field. The total number of enlistments from the original members of the class is 50, the six others who have enlisted having entered in either the Second or Third years.

Allan T. Stephens, Lieut., entered McGill from Western Canada College, Calgary. During the time he spent at McGill before enlisting, Lieut. Allan held many student offices, being secretary of the Arts Undergrad. In his first year, while in his third year he was vice-president of his class. In his second year he was elected to the House Committee of the Union and also to the Business Board of the 1917 Annual. Athletics also claimed some of his time and during his time at college he played on all the class hockey and football teams. Before the end of his third year Lieut. Allan joined the 137th Western Battalion but later was sent over to France in a draft of officers.

Allen, Norman B., Capt. "Fat" one of the prominent graduates of Trinity College School, has been one of the most best known men of the Class of Arts '17. He always took a great deal of interest in all college and class affairs, especially dinners, but never held any offices with the exception of being a member of the Union House Committee. Fat played class hockey and was the mainstay of the class football team for three years. A year ago this Christmas Capt. Allen went to his home in Toronto for the holidays, and forgot to come back, having in the meantime been taken on the strength of the 208th Irish-Canadian Battalion as Adjutant. After seeing this battalion through its recruiting, he went overseas in a draft of officers, and is at present in England preparing for the front.

Auld, F. Clyde, Lieut., originally entered with Arts '16, but when he saw what '17 was doing he stayed out a year to wait for that class re-entering college in the fall of '15. In his first year Auld was secretary of the Arts Undergraduate Society, and last spring was elected to the Students' Council, although he did not have a chance to serve on that Council. Numerous other clubs claimed his attention, such as the Mandolin and Historical Clubs. He took his captain's course with the C. O. T. C. and upon leaving college last spring secured his commission in the Canadian Artillery, being stationed at Halifax on duty at the Forts.

Banfield, F. P., Gunner. During his three years at college, Gunner Banfield took a prominent part in all college activities. For two years he was intercollegiate lightweight wrestling champion. Besides this, he held numerous offices, being on the executive of the Union and the Economics Club, and an associate editor of the Daily. In his third year he won the second McKenzie exhibition in the Department of Economics. After college closed last spring Banfield enlisted in the McGill Battery as a gunner. He comes from Winnipeg, and was educated at Wesley College, and was educated at Wesley College.

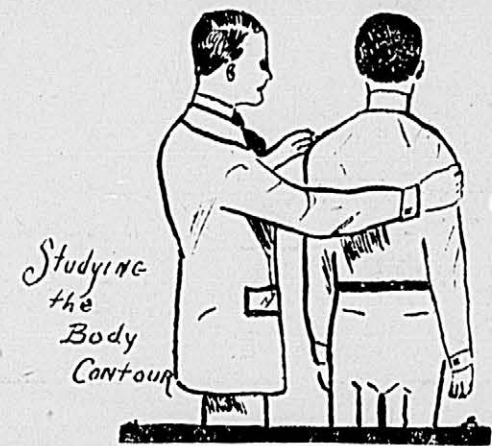

Banfield, W. B., Lieut., also comes from Winnipeg and Wesley College. Lieut. Banfield was intercollegiate lightweight boxing champion, besides figuring in class sport. At the close of his second year Lieut. Banfield secured his commission in one of the Western battalions.

Beattie, J. D. M. B., Gnr., entered McGill from Lower Canada College. At the close of his third year he enlisted as a gunner in No. 6 McGill Battery. He is at present in England.

Bellamy, D. H., Lieut. (wounded), only spent two years with the class, going to England at the end of his second year. He secured his commission with one of the English battalions, and was sent to Salonika, where he was wounded in September last, being sent home to England to convalesce. Lieut. Bellamy was born and received his early education in England.

Biggar, W. H., Capt., entered McGill from Lower Canada College. In his first year he captured an exhibi-

CO-OPERATION.

If the "Daily" should cease publication—what? We wonder how many members of the undergraduate body fully realize the important and almost essential part which the college paper has come to play in student life at McGill. Probably very few ever stop to consider what a tremendous void would be left were the "Daily" to vanish from our halls and classrooms.

Beyond snatching a paper each morning, from one of the various piles which are placed at their disposal, and leisurely perusing its contents between lectures very few give any thought or time to the "Daily." Only those who have through connection with the staff gained some idea of the amount of work which must necessarily be done to make the publication a possibility can really appreciate its true worth.

As a matter of fact many undergraduates are even grossly ignorant of what the "Daily" stands for and under whose control it is published. We have occasionally chanced to observe such persons as these pick up a copy of the "Daily" and after languidly turning over its pages push it aside, stifling a yawn to remark that, "there's nothing in the "Daily" this morning." It is hard to conceive of four printed pages containing nothing. We of course infer that the so-called reader means by his remark that there is nothing of interest in the paper. If such is the implication may not his sphere of interest be very limited.

This is merely an example of what we wish to believe is by no means of a general type of reader. However there are other varying degrees of thoughtless lack of appreciation and assistance. The ranks of the staff are this year much depleted in numbers and consequently the burden weighs heavier than it formerly did upon the shoulders of the few who bear the brunt of the responsibility.

The "Daily" has attained an influence which a few years ago was entirely unlooked for and it is surely the duty of the undergraduates to co-operate in still further making it a success. Some item of news communicated to the staff, some original production contributed occasionally. These are ways in which the present standard of the Daily might be raised and the extensive work in connection therewith more evenly distributed. We are the proud possessors of the only Canadian College Daily, let us not only be the possessors but also the builders.

TO-NIGHT'S GAME.

McGill will meet Laval to-night at the Arena in what is bound to be a close and fiercely contested game. Returning as it does from a long journey and two successive strenuous games, the McGill team is certain to be placed at a disadvantage. Every undergraduate or practically every one of Laval will be on hand to cheer their college team on. Are McGill men going to do less on behalf of the team which has done so well thus far in the City League race? Here is an opportunity for every student to help win the City League championship for McGill. Get out and root for the Red and White.

MADE HONORARY MEMBER.

Lance-Corp. Bert Culyer, son of William Culyer, bail porter at the Union, has been made an honorary member of the McGill Medical Society at No. 3 Canadian General Hospital (McGill). Lance-Corp. Culyer is assistant in the X-Ray department of the hospital, and was employed in the Faculty of Medicine before enlisting with the hospital.

FORTY MCGILL GRADUATES AND PAST STUDENTS NAMED BY FIELD MARSHAL HAIG IN HIS LATEST DESPATCHES

Colonel H. S. Birkett, Officer Commanding No. 3 Canadian General Hospital, Decorated with the C.B.—Lieut.-Col. J. J. Creelman, Law '07, Receives the Distinguished Service Order and the Russian Cross of St. Stanislaus—Lieut. G. Alan Johnson, Sci. '12, Said to Have Won the Military Cross for Taking Prisoners 16 German Soldiers—Thirty-one Grads., Past Students and Undergrads Mentioned in Despatches.

Colonel H. S. Birkett.

Colonel Herbert S. Birkett, who has been created a Commander of the Bath, has for long been one of Montreal's most distinguished medical men. He was born at Hamilton in 1864, and educated in England. For many years past he has been one of the leading specialists in Canada in laryngology and otology. A Professor at McGill, and leading surgeon at the General, the Royal Victoria and other hospitals here. When the war broke out he gave up his work as Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, and one of the most important professional practices in the city, to organize No. 3 McGill General Hospital for war service. He established this hospital with characteristic completeness, and got it across to France with surprising speed, where it has been for the past year or more doing splendid work. The hospital was for some time nearer the front, but for the past year has been at Boulogne, and many of the wounded soldiers coming back from active service have grateful recollections of the treatment they received there. Last year Colonel Birkett returned to Canada for a short time, to arrange matters in connection with the hospital, and then went back to his duties as O. C. at Boulogne.

Lt.-Col. E. C. Hart.

Lieut.-Colonel Edward Charles Hart, Med. '94, who has been created a Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, in recognition of his services in the Canadian Army Medical Corps, comes from Baddeck, N.S., where he was born in 1870. He was practising in British Columbia when he organized No. 3 Canadian General Hospital, with which he has been serving in Macedonia for some months. A short time ago Lieut.-Col. Hart was mentioned in despatches for his good work with No. 3 General.

Lieut.-Col. J. J. Creelman.

Lieut.-Col. J. J. Creelman, who has been granted the D.S.O., and also the Russian Order of St. Stanislaus, has probably seen more service at the front than any artillery officer from Canada. He is a young man, but an old soldier, and was one of the first to offer his services on the declaration of war. Born in Toronto, in 1881, the son of the late A. R. Creelman, K.C., counsel for the C.P.R. He had a brilliant career at Toronto University, and in 1907 graduated in law at McGill. He started his military work when 18 years old, with the G. G. B. G., at Toronto. On coming to Montreal in 1905, he transferred to the 3rd Montreal Field Battery, and made a name for himself as an excellent artillery officer. In 1912 he was promoted lieutenant-colonel, commanding the 6th Brigade. On August 26th, 1914, he was given command of the 2nd Brigade, Field Artillery, for overseas service. The brigade was speedily formed, and went to Valcartier, whence Lieut.-Col. Creelman went to England with the First Canadian Contingent, going to the front with them. He has since been in almost continuous active service, with the exception of a brief visit home last year, when he came to attend the bedside of his father, who was very ill, and who died shortly after Lieut.-Col. Creelman's return to the front. Early in 1915 he suffered shell shock, which sent him to the hospital for some time, but he promptly returned to the front. At that time he was recommended by Field Marshal Sir John French for gallant distinguished conduct in the field. Lieut.-Col. Creelman was lecturer in railway economics at McGill.

Lieut.-Col. R. P. Wright.

Lieut.-Col. Robert Percy Wright, Med. '08, of the Canadian Army Medical Corps, who has been decorated with the Distinguished Service Order, is a Montreal man who has done extremely well in connection with the medical work overseas. He originally went across with No. 1 Canadian Field Ambulance raised in Montreal at the time of the organization of the First Canadian Division at that time holding the rank of major. He is now lieutenant-colonel in command. Lieut.-Col. Wright practised at 306 Sherbrooke street west, and is the son of James A. Wright. He was born in Montreal in 1882, and in addition to his course in Medicine, took three years' study in the Faculty of Arts.

Lt.-Col. G. E. McCuaig.

Lieut.-Col. G. E. McCuaig, who has been awarded the D.S.O., is the second son of Mr. C. J. McCuaig, and prior to enlisting for overseas service was the floor member of the Montreal Stock Exchange firm of McCuaig Bros. and Co. His brother, Major D. Rykert McCuaig, past student, who went over as one of the company commanders in the battalion now commanded by his younger brother, was wounded and taken prisoner in the St. Julien battle of the spring of 1915, in which the Canadian Highland Regiments distinguished themselves. Both brothers were partners in the firm of McCuaig Bros. Lt.-Col. McCuaig was graduated in Science in 1906.

Bt. Lt.-Col. Anderson.

Brevet Lt.-Col. W. B. Anderson, Sci. '98, awarded the D.S.O., was for some time General Staff Officer at Militia Headquarters. He is a son of Lieut.-Col. W. P. Anderson, of Ottawa. Major Anderson applied for overseas service at the outbreak of war, but was such a valuable officer at Militia Headquarters that he could not be spared. He is a graduate of the Royal Military College, and for a number of years with the Royal Canadian Regiment. For four years he served here as General Staff Officer.

He went to England about a year after the war broke out with the rank of General Staff Officer. He was transferred to France as D. A. Q. M. G., with a Canadian division, and

THE WEEK'S CASUALTIES.
Accidentally Killed.
Lieut. J. B. Brophy, Arts '17, Royal Flying Corps.

Wounded.
Lieut. K. L. Duggan, Sci. '14, Canadian Mounted Rifles.

AGAIN "MENTIONED."

LIEUT. "BUSTER" REID.

For the third time since he went overseas with the 23rd Westmount Rifles, Lieut. G. Eric Reid, Arts '15, star McGill inside wing, has been mentioned in despatches. "Buster" has borne a charmed life since he set foot in France. He enlisted originally as a private in the 23rd Battalion, was promoted to the commissioned ranks within a short time, and only remained in England for a brief period before he was shipped to France to join the 3rd Battalion. There he soon won a name for himself as a fearless officer. He was twice wounded, and a year ago was back in Canada on a short leave of absence. Notwithstanding the fact that he had lost the use of one of his hands, Lieut. Reid was enabled to return to the front, and at last word was with one of the British "tanks" in the Somme offensive. It is doubtless for his work with these machines that he has been again "mentioned."

his services with that unit won for him the D.S.O.

Major A. B. McEwen.

Major Allan B. McEwen, decorated with the Distinguished Service Order, has been twice wounded since he went overseas with the First Division as a lieutenant. After serving with the 12th Battery, of which he is now in command, he is a graduate of Science '12, and his home is in Byron, Ont.

Captain Herbert Molson.

Captain Herbert Molson, Sci. '94, has been awarded the Military Cross for gallantry at the front. He was an officer of the 5th Royal Highlanders, going overseas with the 42nd Battalion, under the command of Lieut.-Col. Cantlie.

He was wounded last June, but refused for a time to go to a hospital. The doctors at last, however, ordered him a complete rest. He visited Montreal while on leave, and recently returned to duty, and at present has a light command in London.

Capt. F. W. Lees.

Captain Frederick W. Lees, awarded the Military Cross, was practising at Eburne, B.C., when he became Medical Officer of the 7th Canadian Battalion of the First Canadian Division. He is a native of Fallbrook, Ont., and is a graduate of the Faculty of Medicine of the class of '08.

Capt. J. A. DeLancey.

Captain James Arnold DeLancey, who has been awarded the Military Cross, is a graduate of Science of the class of '09. After graduating he was employed in civil engineering in Panama, being successively assistant engineer at Bocas del Toro, engineer in charge at the same point on the Canal, and later Chief Engineer of the Sangua plant. He was born in Middleton, N.S., in 1880, and was a member of the first Students' Council of the University in 1909. Capt. DeLancey has been in France with the 25th Canadian Battalion for upwards of a year. At St. Etel he was slightly wounded, and for his gallantry was mentioned in despatches.

Lieut. F. A. Wilkin.

Lieut. F. A. Wilkin, Sci. '95, awarded the Military Cross, has been with the Canadian Machine Gun Battalion since the First Division crossed from England. He was born in Yokohama, Japan, in 1872, and previous to joining Auto Machine Gun Brigade No. 1 of the Canadian Forces overseas, was employed in the survey department of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Winnipeg.

Lieut. H. L. Fetherstonhaugh.

Lieut. Fetherstonhaugh, M.C., was a member of the architectural firm of Fetherstonhaugh and McDonald, Montreal, when he enlisted as an officer with the 21st Battery of Artillery raised here in the winter of 1914-15. He is now with the 4th Battery of the First Division. Lieut. Fetherstonhaugh is a member of the class of Architecture '09, and after leaving McGill was a draftsman with George B. Posts and Sons, New York City, and later with E. and W. S. Maxwell, Montreal. He was born in Montreal in 1887, his home being at 775 Sherbrooke street West.

Lieut. Harry J. Daubney.

For carrying out a valuable reconnaissance and although severely wounded, directing the consolidation of a trench, Lieut. Harry Johnston Daubney, past student with Science '15, has been awarded the Military Cross. He is with a Mounted Rifles unit of the Canadian forces, and comes from Ottawa, where he was educated at the Ottawa Collegiate Institute. Two brothers, students graduates of McGill in Science. After leaving McGill Lieut. Daubney was employed in the United States, later at a power plant in the province of Quebec, and still later at Port Nelson.

Lieut. G. Alan Johnson.

For taking prisoners fifteen German soldiers and one German officer, Lieut. Geoffrey Alan Johnson, S.M. '12, former well known McGill athlete and prominent student leader, has just been awarded the Military Cross, according to advices which reached the University on Saturday. Lieut. Johnson accomplished the capture of the Germans by making use of the same presence of mind which used to stand him in such good stead when he captained the McGill football team on the gridiron back in 1911. It was in the course of the recent operations on the Somme front after the Canadians had captured a German trench, Lieut. Johnson was called up with Field Company of Engineers to assist in consolidating the position, and in erecting the necessary defences, those erected by the Canadians having been demolished by the German artillery fire. While his men were engaged in this work, he, unaccompanied, unarmed and totally unprepared for any hostile attack, proceeded to take a stroll through the former German works. Arrived in front of a former German dugout, he was surprised to see the head of a German officer appear at the door. Although he was without a weapon of any kind, Johnson readily took in the situation, and making a motion towards his hip pocket, caused the German officer to throw up his hands in true "Kamerad" fashion. With the officer there surrendered fifteen soldiers who had hidden in the dugout to escape the bombardment.

bardment, and had been overlooked by the British soldiers in their cleaning-up process.

Lieut. Johnson, besides playing football with the McGill team, was connected with various other undergraduate organizations, including the Students' Union, of which he was vice-president. He was president of the Football Club. Lieut. Johnson's home is in Ottawa, and he went overseas a year ago, and since going to France has been attached to the 11th Field Company, Canadian Engineers.

Lt.-Col. C. M. Edwards.

Lieut.-Colonel C. M. Edwards, past student of Ottawa, commander of the 38th Battalion, has been awarded by King George the Distinguished Service Order. The good news came to him just on the eve of a very welcome holiday leave to England after the recent heavy fighting.

Lieut.-Colonel Edwards is a past student of McGill, who has been in command of the 38th Battalion since it was organized in Ottawa shortly after war was declared. At the time of the formation of the First Universities Company, this unit was originally designated "D" Company of the 38th, and as such went into camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake. Lieut.-Colonel Edwards at this time came to Montreal and inspected the McGill C. O. T. C. in the Craig Street Drill Hall.

Lieut. K. L. Duggan.

Lieut. K. L. Duggan, of the Mounted Rifles, wounded, had been in the trenches for only a week after his return from a ten-day leave of absence when he was hit by a German bullet and wounded slightly in the left leg. Private advice and the official telegram from the Record Office at Ottawa conveyed this information to his father, Mr. G. H. Duggan, president of the Dominion Bridge Company, Ltd. Lieut. Duggan is being attended at No. 24 General Hospital at Etaples, to which he was admitted on December 20th. His furlough was spent in London with his mother, who has been in England for some time.

Lieut. Duggan is 23 years of age, and a brother of Lieut. H. S. Duggan, Sci. '12, who was killed in action in October, 1915. He was graduated in Applied Science in 1914, and at the time of his enlistment was with the Montreal Harbour Commissioners.

Norm. Forbes, Sci. '14, well known boxer and football player, has completed his course at the Royal School of Artillery at Kingston, and is now posted to "C" Battery, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery at Kingston. Forbes played senior football with McGill and also figured on the intercollegiate boxing team.

The following McGill men have been invalided home in the latest party of Canadian convalescents: Lieut. M. M. Johnson, Arts '15, Canadian Field Artillery, and Lieut. H. Hadley, Sci. '06, 14th Battalion. Capt. G. O. Wood, Med. '05, was medical officer in charge of the party.

A London despatch says that Lt.-Col. Peers Davidson, Arts '30, Law '33, of the 73rd Battalion, who has been under medical treatment in London for an affection of the heart, has resigned his commission, and will sail for Canada shortly. His departure is much regretted by his officers and men.

Lieut. R. V. Colville Sinclair, Law '12, of the 79th Battery, C.F.A., has been a patient in hospital recently, suffering from injuries received when he was thrown from his horse.

Capt. Otto DeMuth, Med. '15, of the Royal Army Medical Corps, who was home on furlough recovering from injuries received at Albert, has sailed on his return to England.

Promoted in the Field.

Lieut. Percy Ellwood Corbett, Arts '13, and Rhodes Scholar from McGill, has been promoted on the field to acting Captain. Lieut. Corbett served as supernumerary with the 73rd Battalion commanded by Lieut.-Col. Peers Davidson, but owing to orders issued from Ottawa was not allowed to proceed overseas with this unit. Before the departure of the 73rd from Canada, Lieut. Corbett sailed for England, and immediately after the Somme drive early in June, was sent to France to serve with the 13th Canadian Highlanders. It is with this unit that he is serving as acting Captain.

Lieuts. R. R. Duffy, Sci. '13, and S. H. Hutchison, Sci. '16, of the Canadian Engineers, are taking a course at Deganwy, North Wales.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gilmour, Winnipeg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie, to Major Harold French McDonald, D.S.O., Sci. '07, son of the late Archibald McDonald, chief factor of the Hudson Bay Company. The marriage will take place at St. Stephen's Church, London, Eng., on January 9. In the absence of her father, the bride will be given in marriage by Major-General R. E. W. Turner, V.C., C.B., D.S.O.

Capt. D. M. Lineham, Med. '39, a prominent Winnipeg physician before he went overseas as medical officer of the 183rd Battalion, has been appointed a member of the standing medical board of one of the Canadian camps in England, says a London despatch.

A London despatch says that Capt. the Rev. J. D. Morrow, "the Athletic Parson," and past student of McGill, where he enjoyed a great reputation as a sprinter, has been posted as chaplain to the Canadian Discharge Depot at Buxton, England. Capt. Morrow went overseas as chaplain of the Toronto Sportsmen's Battalion.

Lieut. Ernest H. ("Pep") Paisley, Sci. '16, former captain of the McGill senior football team, and now taking a course of instruction in artillery work at Kingston, was a caller at the McGill Union Saturday. Lieut. Paisley is returning to Kingston shortly to take his captain's course, and contemplates joining the next draft of Canadians to leave for England to enter the Royal Flying Corps.

Several appointments of McGill men to staff positions in England are reported in despatches from London. Lieut. H. L. Fetherstonhaugh, Sci. '09, who has just been awarded the Military Cross, has been appointed on the personal staff as aide-de-camp, while Capt. Talbot M. Papineau, Arts '04, Law '10, also a winner of the Military Cross, has been promoted a staff officer of the third grade.

New Year's greetings have been received by the Students' Society from the following graduates: Major Robert Wilson, Med. '93, officer in charge of X-ray and Electricity for the Canadian contingents overseas; Capt. A. E. London, Med. '13, M.O. Royal Horse Artillery Brigade, 4th Cavalry Division, B.E.F., France; Lieut. G. Alan Johnson, Sci. '12, Canadian Engineers; Capt. G. H. Manchester, M. O. 32nd Canadian Reserve Battalion, East Sandling; Capt. A. B. Wilkes, Med. '15, Grenville Special Canadian Hospital; Capt. H. Slingsby, Sci. '10, staff captain, Heavy artillery, 10th Corps, B.E.F.; Lieut. H. Standish Ball, Sci. '11, Royal Engineers, attached Mine School, 1st Army, B.E.F.; Lieut. G. H. Kearney, Med. '11, Royal Army Medical Corps.

Lieut. Cooper's Death.

How keenly the loss of Lieut. Corin H. B. Cooper, Sci. '12, whose death of wounds was announced some weeks ago, was felt by his fellow-officers of the 178th Company, Royal Engineers, is evidenced by the sentiments expressed in a letter to Rev. Sydney Cooper, father of Lieut. Cooper, written by Capt. R. S. Mackelligan, of the R. E. The letter, a copy of which has been forwarded to Dean Adams, of the Faculty of Applied Science, was written shortly after Lieut. Cooper was wounded, and when he seemed to be on a fair way to recovery. Later, however, erysipelas set in, and Lieut. Cooper succumbed.

The letter reads: "You will probably have heard from the War Office that your son has been wounded. He is doing well, and when I saw him this afternoon at the Casualty Clearing Station, was very cheerful, and not in much pain. He was taking his men up to work in a motor lorry, when a shell burst close to him. He is not in any danger, and should be so the doctor tells me, and get perfectly well in time. He has been rather badly hit in the left ankle, and has some other wounds about him which are not at all serious. At present his left leg is in splints, and the doctors are quite optimistic about it. I cannot tell you how sorry we all are about it, and the Company can ill afford to lose even for a short time so good an officer as your son is. I should like to tell you a little about the splendid work he did during the early part of the operations in July last. He was responsible for getting the roads for guns and transport through to Fricourt at the earliest moment possible. The success of the operations depended very largely on this, and the magnificent way he carried it out, and the splendid example he set his men, won praise from everyone, and reflected great credit on the Company. Most of the work was carried out under heavy shell fire, and under great difficulties, and it was solely due to the determination and high example of your son that the men were able to carry it out so successfully. We should be so pleased if you could let us know from time to time how he progresses. If there is anything more I can tell you, or do for Cooper, please let me know. I should be so glad to do anything I can."

"11 p.m. Someone has just been over to see him, and says he is doing splendidly. Except for the ankle, there is really no need to worry."

Prisoner a McGill Man.

A London despatch says:—Major J. S. Jenkins, Med. '12, deputy director of the medical department of the Fourth Division, met a German officer prisoner from the recent Somme fighting who stated that he was a graduate of the Faculty of Science of McGill. He said that he failed to understand why England and Germany were fighting. His conversation revealed much antipathy between the senior and the junior German officers.

The death of Dr. J. A. Henderson, assistant professor of anatomy, occurred on January 2. Dr. Henderson was in his usual hospital on Saturday morning, but Sunday last developed pneumonia, and passed away at 11 a.m. on Tuesday.

Dr. John Alexander Henderson was born in Paris, Oct. 28, 1868, son of the late Alexander Henderson. Removing to Orangeville, Ont., Dr. Henderson continued his studies at the local schools, and in 1889 entered the Faculty of Medicine at McGill as a student. In 1893 he was graduated with the Sutherland Gold Medal as prize man. In 1895 Dr. Henderson was appointed assistant demonstrator of anatomy, and in the following year was made demonstrator. In 1905 he became lecturer in anatomy and in 1913 was made assistant professor, a position which he held at the time of his death.

Since the declaration of war, Dr. Henderson has been in full charge of the department of anatomy in the absence of the head of the department, Prof. A. C. Geddes, now Brigadier-General on staff duty overseas.

SCI. '19 MEETING.

A very important meeting of the Class of Science '19 is called for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Engineering Building. Urgent business will be brought up, so every member is requested to be sure to be on hand.

REPRESENTATIVE RESIGNS.

The resignation of W. N. Jones, Agr. '18, as Macdonald College representative of McGill Daily, has been received and accepted by the Macdonald College Students' Council. He has been succeeded by G. C. Cairnie, Agr. '19.

DONNELLY-MOONEY.

The marriage is being solemnized in the church of St. Thomas Aquinas this morning of Miss Aileen Mooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mooney, Greene Avenue, and Mr. Charles Donnelly. The father of the bride is billiard marker at the Students' Union.

TRAINING IN ENGLAND.

Lieut. R. M. Robertson is another member of the class of Science '17 who has enlisted and is now undergoing training in England before proceeding to the front with the Canadian Engineers. Lieut. Robertson is with a number of other McGill men at the Canadian Engineers' Training Depot at Crowborough, Sussex.

ILL IN THE HOSPITAL.

Edward (Cap.) Aylward, janitor of Strathcona Hall, has received word from his son, Gunner H. J. Aylward, of the 271st Canadian Siege Artillery (McGill), that he has been evacuated from hospital after being a patient for two weeks suffering from pleurisy.

The Royal Military College of Canada.

THERE are few national institutions of more value and interest to the country than the Royal Military College of Canada. Notwithstanding this, its object and the work it is accomplishing are not sufficiently understood by the general public.

The College is a Government Institution, designed primarily for the purpose of giving instruction in all branches of military science to cadets and officers of the Canadian Militia. In fact, it corresponds to Woolwich and Sandhurst.

The Commandant and military instructors are all officers on the active list of the Imperial Army, lent for the purpose, and there is in addition a complete staff of professors for the civil subjects which form such an important part of the College course. Medical attendance is also provided.

Whilst the College is organized on a strictly military basis the cadets receive a practical and scientific training in subjects essential to a sound modern education.

The course includes a thorough grounding in Mathematics, Civil Engineering, Surveying, Physics, Chemistry, French and English.

The strict discipline maintained at the College is one of the most valuable features of the course, and in addition, the constant practice of gymnastic drills and outdoor exercises of all kinds, ensures health and excellent physical condition.

Commissions in all branches of the Imperial service and Canadian Permanent Force are offered annually.

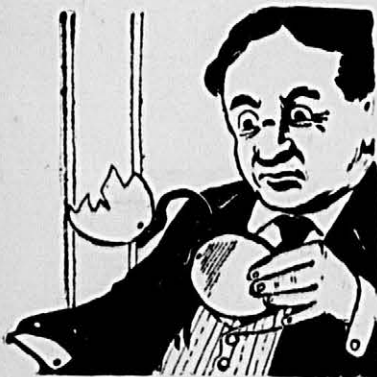

The diploma of graduation is considered by the authorities conducting the examination for Dominion Land Surveyor to be equivalent to a university degree, and by the Regulations of the Law Society of Ontario, it obtains the same exemptions as a B.A. degree.

The length of the course is three years in three terms of 9 months each.

The total cost of the course, including board, uniform, instructional material, and all extras, amounts to $500.

The annual competitive examination for admission to the college, takes place in May of each year, at the headquarters of the several military districts.

For full particulars regarding this examination and for any other information, application should be made to the secretary of the Militia Council, Ottawa, Ont., or to the Commandant, Royal Military College, Kingston, Ont.

tion. Towards the close of his second year Biggar secured his appointment as lieutenant and adjutant of the Army Service School at Quebec. He remained here for over a year, in the meantime receiving his promotion to the rank of Captain. He sailed for overseas last summer.

Brophy, J. B., Flight-Lieut. (killed in action), was educated at the Ottawa Collegiate Institute, from which school he entered McGill. During his first year he caught the senior football team, champions of the inter-collegiate League. He was one of the finest punters McGill has ever had. Lieut. Brophy received his training in aviation in Toronto, proceeding overseas a year ago. He saw a great deal of service in France, and only returned to England early last December. He was killed while flying in England.

Brown, F. M., Lieut., spent only one year at McGill, enlisting with the 24th Battalion when it was raised here by Lt.-Col. J. A. Gunn, D.S.O. Lieut. Brown saw much service in France before returning to England to take his commission in the Royal Horse Artillery. He was preparing for Theology.

Caverhill, G. R., Lieut., entered McGill from Lower Canada College. He played class football for two years. In his second year he was secretary-treasurer of his class. In the fall of '15 he secured his commission in the Canadian Army Service Corps, after qualifying at Quebec. For a year he was stationed in Western Ontario at a supply depot. Last year he proceeded overseas. In the summer of 1915 Lieut. Caverhill acted as Orderly Sergeant in the First summer auxiliary battalion of the C. O. T. C.

Dobson, R. M., Signaller, (wounded), entered Arts '17 from the Montreal High School. Signaller Dobson spent two years at McGill, after which he enlisted with the Second Universities Co., which went overseas under the command of Capt. Geo. MacDonald. Signaller Dobson was severely wounded in the leg, by shrapnel fire, on June 3rd of last year. After several months in England he returned to France, and is at present once more with the "Pats", having seen service at Ypres and on the Somme.

Dowler, J. W. D., Lieut., entered McGill from Victoria. During his junior year he was a Lieut. in the McGill C.O.T.C. At the close of last session he enlisted in the 11th Mounted Rifles of Victoria, proceeding overseas with them last summer. He is at present in England preparing for the front. Lieut. Dowler distinguished himself while in England by his excellent work at the Bombing School.

Dunton, W. E., Lieut. (shell shocked), entered McGill from Lower Canada College with one of the matriculation Scholarships. During his second year here he was president of Arts '17 while holding several other minor offices about college. He was Lieut. in the first McGill battalion. In the spring of 1915 Lieut. Dunton enlisted as platoon commander under Capt. Gregor Barclay in the First Universities Co., proceeding overseas in June of '15 after a month at Niagara-on-the-Lake. Lieut. Dunton remained in England for some time as platoon commander in the 11th Reserve Battalion. Later he proceeded to France as a Lieut. in the "Pats". Last spring Lieut. Dunton was reported as missing, later turning up in a French hospital suffering from a severe case of shell shock. He returned to Canada on sick leave and is at present in Montreal.

Davis, H. W., Lieut., went overseas with the Royal Canadian Regiment from Bermuda and was wounded and shell-shocked in the fighting on the Ypres front in June. He is now back with his battalion.

Gallagher, C. A. W., Lieut., entered McGill as a senior matriculant when Arts '17 was in its sophomore year. During his first year here he was News Editor on the McGill Daily. Gallagher's intentions were to take a double course in Arts and Medicine but when Col. Birkett, C. B., was raising the McGill Hospital, Gallagher joined that unit as a private. While serving in France he helped to turn out the McGill Hospital. Last summer Gallagher returned to Canada because of the death of his father and later secured his commission in one of the Western battalions.

Gordon, C. A. E. R., Lieut., was a nephew of "Ralph Gordon," entered McGill from Winnipeg. During his first year here worked on the staff of the Daily. In 1916 Gordon secured his appointment as Lieut. and Quartermaster in the Medical Unit which was being raised by his father. Hale, F. W. G., Lieut., spent three years at McGill during which time he distinguished himself in class football and in the soph-freshie rush of '14-'15. Last year he held his commission in the McGill C.O.T.C., and when Lt.-Col. A. Magee was authorized to raise the 148th Battalion, Hale secured his appointment as platoon commander under Lt.-Col. Magee. He is at present in France having gone across from England with a draft of the 148th.

Harris, H. R., Lieut., spent two years at McGill after which he went to R. M. C. to qualify for his commission in the artillery. He proceeded overseas last summer as a Lieut. in the Royal Field Artillery. Harrower, G., Flight-Sub. Lieut., likewise spent only two years here, after which he went to the States to qualify in aviation. Now he is flying "Somewhere in France." During his stay at McGill he took a prominent part in class athletics playing on the football and hockey teams.

Henry, W. R., Pte., enlisted last spring with No. 9 Field Ambulance and is at present in France. He entered McGill from the Montreal High School. Football was his strong point in class activities.

Heron, A. W., Pte., who along with L. M. Roberts was the first man to enlist from the class of Arts '17, entered McGill with a scholarship from the Montreal High School. In his first year he was president of his class, besides holding other minor offices. In athletics he shone on the track, and was a member of the McGill track team for two years, winning his big "M" for this work. In the fall of '15 he enlisted with the 11th Field Ambulance, Arts '17 holding a farewell dinner for him before he left for overseas service.

Y. M. C. A. SUPPER.

The members of the Bible Study Classes of the McGill Y.M.C.A. will hold a rally on New Year supper on Tuesday evening at 6 p.m., in Strathcona Hall. A short programme of entertainment has been arranged to follow. The members will be glad to have others of their fellow students attend the supper, and thus add to the success of the gathering. It would be appreciated by the Social Committee of the Y. M. C. A. if those intending to come would notify the secretary or any of the Bible Class members of their intention before to-morrow noon.

he Canadian Army Medical Corps soon after war was declared, and is still at the front with a unit of this branch of the service. At McGill he played with the senior hockey squad in 1913-14.

Hutchison, R. R., Corp. (Military Medal), spent two years here, receiving the Diploma of Commerce in the spring of '15. The first year of the war he studied signalling at McGill, a course which was given by Prof. L. V. King. Before college had closed on that session Hutchison went to Ottawa and joined the 2nd Divisional Signalling Co., as a sapper, later being promoted. After a year's service in France, Corp. Hutchison was awarded the Military Medal only a short time ago for distinguished service.

Johnson, H. W., Sergt., a son of the late Dean Johnston, of the Faculty of Arts, entered McGill from Lower Canada College. When war broke out he began to specialize in aviation, and last summer was at Valcartier as an instructor in this work. Last fall he joined Kitchen's Own, which is being recruited by Lt.-Col. McRobie.

Keir, R. W., Corp. (Missing), one of the strong men of the class, entered from Ormstown Academy. During the two years which he spent at McGill he played class football, and in the fall of '14 was a spare on the intermediate football team. A year ago last spring Corp. Keir enlisted after the heavy bombardment at Ypres he was reported missing. Corp. Keir was intending to enter Theology.

Kennedy, L. H., Lieut., left college after his Freshman year, and has recently secured a commission in an infantry battalion being raised in British Columbia.

Kerr, P. A., Gunner, entered McGill as a junior, having completed his first two years at Victoria, B.C. Last year he played on the class hockey team. At the close of last season he enlisted in No. 6 McGill Battery raised by Major W. D. Tait.

Kilgour, J. R., Pte., (missing), entered McGill with a scholarship from the Montreal High School. During the two years which he spent here, Pte. Kilgour was a member of the McGill orchestra. He was one of the first McGill men to join the First Universities Co. raised by Capt. Gregor Barclay. After the battle which took place around Ypres last June, in which the Canadians suffered heavy casualties, Pte. Kilgour was reported as missing.

Kneeland, C. R., Lieut.-Corp., was educated at the Montreal High School before entering McGill. Kneeland joined the 6th Universities Co. last fall and later was promoted to be a Lieut.-Corp. in the same company. He intended entering the navy.

Lalanne, J. A., Lieut. (Wounded), entered Arts '17 with a scholarship, having received his early education at the Lacerte Academy. He was a member of the first McGill Battalion and was a Lieut.-Corp. in "C" Company under Capt. Geo. MacDonald. Lalanne was the first man to join the 2nd Universities Co. raised by Capt. MacDonald. Before leaving Canada Lalanne was promoted to be Corporal, and after a short time in England received his Sergeant's stripes. He crossed to France and served all last winter with the Pats. Last spring he left the Pats and went into a training school qualifying for his commission. He was appointed a Lieut. in the 60th Canadian Battalion and passed safely through all the heavy fighting in which the Canadians took part last spring. He also saw action last summer on the Somme front. At present he is in England convalescing.

Levick, A. L. (Killed in Action), was born and educated in England before he entered McGill with Arts '17. He spent two years here and then crossed to England to take his commission in an English battalion. He was killed in action on the Somme last September.

Lightbody, C. J., Capt. (wounded), enlisted with the 1st Universities Company going to France with that company. He was wounded last spring being struck in the head by shrapnel fire. After convalescing in England Lightbody received his commission and is at present in Y. M. C. A. Work. He was also a student at the Presbyterian College.

Lighthall, W. S., Lieut., entered McGill from Westmount Academy. While at McGill he held several offices in his class and was secretary of the Arts Undergrad. In 1915 Lighthall enlisted as a trooper but later received his commission in an English battalion and saw service in Mesopotamia. While on duty here he had a bad attack of sun stroke and returned to Canada on sick leave. He sailed again in a short time to rejoin his regiment.

MacDermot, T. W. L., Corp., entered McGill from the Montreal High School. During his three years at McGill, Corp. MacDermot held many offices. He was on the executive of the L.L. and the athletic association besides many minor clubs. MacDermot was a member of the '17 Annual serving on the business board. Last year he was respectively Managing Editor and Editor-in-Chief of the McGill Daily. He was also a member of the McGill Harrier team. Last spring MacDermot enlisted in No. 6 McGill Siege Battery and later in the summer received his corporal's stripes.

McDiarmid, N. H., Flight Sub-Lieut, spent only one year at McGill entering from Victoria High School. He took his course in aviation on the coast and later went to England doing duty in England. He was badly wounded last fall when his machine fell into the English Channel. He was returned to Canada as unfit for further service.

McKenzie, T. Cuyler, corporal, entered the class of 1915 after being out of college for a year. Although a qualified signalling officer, he enlisted in the ranks of a Prince Edward Island Siege Battery and went to England a short time ago as a corporal in the signal section. He is now with the 27th Canadian Siege Battery undergoing further training before proceeding to the front.

McLeod, John M., private, spent only a few months with the class before he enlisted in the spring of 1915 with the First Universities Company reinforcing the P.P.C.L.I. At the battle on the Ypres salient in June last he was reported missing along with many others of the "Pats," and to date no further tidings have been received of him.

MacKay, Itey, Lieut., spent two years with the class, during which time he played on the football team. He secured his commission in the 64th, N. B. Battalion. He went to France with the 26th Battalion, and saw service on the Somme, passing through the battle of Courcellette.

MacKellar, D. W., Pte. (died), entered from the Glenora High School. He joined the 73rd Battalion which was being raised by Lt.-Col. Peers-Davidson. While the battalion was training in Montreal Pte. MacKellar was taken ill and died.

McLeod, D. W., Piper, joined the 42nd Battalion as a piper when that unit was being raised here by Lt.-Col. Cantlie, D.S.O. Piper McLeod was also a student at the Presbyterian College.

McLennan, G. S., Lieut., spent two years with the class before going to Ottawa to qualify in machine gun work. He received his commission in the 73rd Battalion, being in charge of the machine gun section.

Mathewson, K., Flight-Sub. Lieut. (killed in action), entered McGill from Lower Canada College. He held numerous class offices. On the athletic field he also distinguished himself, being spare to the senior team, champions '13-'14. When the 42nd Battalion was being raised, by Lt.-Col. Cantlie, D.S.O., Mathewson secured his appointment as Lieut., but after seeing service in France for some time he secured his transfer to the Royal Flying Corps. He was killed in action some time ago when his machine fell behind the German lines.

Magor, G. A., Flight Sub-Lieut., was secretary of the class when he left college at the commencement of last session to take a course in flying at an aviation school in the United States. He has been with the Royal Naval Air Service for some time. He played class hockey and football at McGill.

Martin, C. S., Lieut., was with Arts '17 in its Freshman year. He went overseas with the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, was promoted lieutenant in the field, and was wounded in the fighting last June. He has returned to Canada on sick leave.

Maxwell, G. N., Pte., entered McGill from the Athens High School. He enlisted with No. 9 Field Ambulance. Besides his work in this unit, Pte. Maxwell has been helping in Y. M. C. A. work in France.

Mills, J. W., private, enlisted with the 73rd Royal Highlanders of Canada, and was recently reported wounded. His home is in Ormstown, Que. Entered McGill with a scholarship.

O'Heir, H. B., is at present in England training with one of the Artillery units. O'Heir spent two years at McGill, after which he went to Columbia University for a year, then proceeding overseas.

O'Meara, R. S., Lieut., was managing editor of McGill Daily when he joined the sanitary section organized in Montreal in the summer of 1915 by Major Starkey. He has been with this section on the front for upwards of a year, and has been engaged in water-testing recently. Late advice state that he has been recommended for a commission in the Canadian artillery, and will shortly take it out.

Parnell, Hon. W. A. P., Lieut., joined the Grenadier Guards of the Imperial Army after leaving college in 1915, and was killed in action in the early part of the Somme offensive in September, while gallantly leading his company to the attack against the German lines. He won the Military Cross for displaying great gallantry in a trench raid on a German position in last winter's campaign.

Towers, G. F., Lieut., enlisted in the Army Service Corps after qualifying at the School of Instruction at Quebec. He is now in charge of a supply depot in Western Ontario.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

DEPARTMENT OF COLONIZATION, MINES AND FISHERIES.

The chief minerals of the Province of Quebec are Asbestos, Chromite, Copper, Iron, Gold, Molybdenite, Phosphate, Mica, Graphite, Ornamental and Building Stone, Clays, Etc.

The Mining Law gives absolute security of Title and is very favourable to the Prospector.

MINERS' CERTIFICATES.

First of all, obtain a miner's certificate, from the Department in Quebec, or from the nearest agent. The price of this certificate is $10.00, and it is valid until the first of January following. This certificate gives the right to prospect on public lands and on private lands, on which the mineral rights belong to the Crown.

The holder of this certificate may stake mining claims to the extent of 200 acres.

WORKING CONDITIONS.

During the first six months following the staking of the claim, work on it must be performed to the extent of at least twenty-five days of eight hours.

SIX MONTHS AFTER STAKING.

At the expiration of six months from the date of the staking, the prospector, to retain his rights, must take out a mining license.

MINING LICENSE.

The mining license may cover 40 to 200 acres in unsurveyed territory. The price of this license is Fifty Cents an acre per year, and a fee of $10.00 on issue. It is valid for one year, and is renewable on the same terms, on producing an affidavit that during the year work has been performed to the extent of at least twenty-five days' labor on each forty acres.

MINING CONCESSION.

Notwithstanding the above, a mining concession may be acquired at any time at the rate of $5.00 an acre for SUPERIOR METALS, and $3.00 an acre for INFERIOR MINERALS.

The attention of prospectors is specially called to the territory in the North-Western part of the Province of Quebec, north of the height of land, where important mineralized belts are known to exist.

PROVINCIAL LABORATORY.

Special arrangements have been made with the POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL of LAVAL UNIVERSITY, 228 ST. DENIS STREET, MONTREAL, for the analysis of minerals at very reduced rates for the benefit of miners and prospectors in the Province of Quebec. The well equipped laboratories of this institution and its trained chemists, ensure results of undoubted integrity and reliability.

The Bureau of Mines at Quebec will give all the information desired in connection with the mines and mineral resources of the Province, on application addressed to

HONORE MERCIER,

Minister of Colonization, Mines and Fisheries, Quebec.
